

Please don't sell out to the special interests of the mass media. I know there is not enough money to buy your votes. This is America, not some banana republic. At least I hope and pray you don't cave in. Remember America is much better informed then in the past. We will be watching. FRED.....